HUNGRY FOR SOMETHING DIFFERENT?

JOIN US ON APRIL 30 AT ARTS AT THE ARMORY IN SOMERVILLE FOR A VERY SPECIAL EVENT—YUM: a Taste of Immigrant City!

Join us for a night filled with entertainment and culinary delights from around the world, for just $40 per person. You'll sample international cuisine from some of Somerville's most delicious immigrant-owned restaurants:

Amelia's Kitchen (Italian) · Café Belô (Brazilian) · Fasika (Ethiopian) · Highland Creole Cuisine (Haitian) · House of Tibet Kitchen (Tibetan) · Maya Sol (Mexican) · Namaskar (Indian) · Neighborhood Restaurant & Bakery (Portuguese) · Ronnarong Thai Tapas Bar (Thai) · Sabur (Mediterranean) · Restaurante Turístico Machu Picchu (Peruvian) · Machu Picchu Charcoal Chicken & Grill (Peruvian)

It's all happening April 30 at the Armory in Somerville—no passport required! It will be a night you won't want to miss. All to benefit The Welcome Project's programs for immigrant families in Somerville. Visit www.yumsomerville.org or www.welcomeproject.org. (617) 623-6633 to order your tickets today. Space is limited!

And speaking of great food, you can score a discount at the restaurants listed above when you purchase a YUM Restaurant Card! It's an easy way to save money throughout 2010, and it's only $12 online. All proceeds benefit The Welcome Project. Visit: www.yumsomerville.org.
