

Explore Boston

- ▶ Can you tour the Freedom Trail if you use a wheelchair?
- ▶ If a family member has hearing loss, can she still enjoy a show at the Huntington Theatre?
- ▶ Is the New England Aquarium a good choice for a family outing if some members of your family are visually impaired?

Explore Boston is an online resource for people with disabilities, and for families with children or older relatives. This website shows you which Boston attractions are easily accessible, and which aren't, so you can plan your outing more easily.

www.exploreboston.org

Explore Boston

Explore Boston gathers information from Boston's most popular museums, theaters, zoos, and other tourist destinations. Facts about accessibility, child-friendliness, and transportation are all in one place, so you don't have to visit dozens of individual websites.

Check out Explore Boston, and open the doors to one of the most vibrant and culturally rich cities in the United States.

ExploreBoston.org was funded by the 2010 Gopen Fellowship, which is sponsored by the Massachusetts DD Network:

- Institute for Community Inclusion at the University of Massachusetts Boston
- Eunice Kennedy Shriver Center
- Disability Law Center
- Massachusetts Developmental Disabilities Council

www.exploreboston.org